Stuart Levitan, Staff Attorney, joined the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission staff in 1987, following five years service on the Dane County Board of Supervisors. Stuart is also an award-winning print and broadcast journalist, chair of the Madison Landmarks Commission, and author of Madison: The Illustrated Sesquicentennial History, Vol. 1. (University of Wisconsin Press, 2006). He is a 1975 graduate of New College, the Honors College of Florida, and a 1986 graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School.