

James Scott, Chairman, has been a member of the WERC since May of 2011. Scott came to the WERC from a position as a shareholder and director with the Milwaukee labor and employment law firm of Lindner & Marsack, S.C., where his primary areas of concentration were employment litigation and employment discrimination. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin with a B.S. degree in 1966, and from Marquette University Law School in 1969. He was also awarded a fellowship for graduate studies in law from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

He is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the American Bar Association, and the Bar Association for the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals. He is past Chairman of the State Bar of Wisconsin Labor and Employment Law Section, and has served as Vice- Chairman of the American Bar Association Administrative Law Section Committee on Civil Rights and Employment Discrimination.