Involving Certain Employees of
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MILWAUKEE

Case III
No. 11269 SE-3
Decision No. 8296-A

MEMORANDUM ACCOMPANYING ORDER AMENDING DIRECTION OF ELECTION

Earlier in the year, four labor organizations filed petitions with the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission requesting that representation elections be conducted among employees of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in four proposed collective bargaining units. On November 30, 1967, the Commission issued Directions of Elections among employees in two bargaining units and dismissed two petitions on the basis that the units described in those petitions were inappropriate. One of the petitions dismissed had been filed by U-W-M Maintenance Local No. 1 Independent Union, wherein it proposed an appropriate unit consisting of Building Maintenance Helpers I, II and III employed by University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Said Labor Organization, during the course of the hearing on its petition, claimed to represent a substantial number of employees so classified. Prior to the issuance of the Direction of Election among the so-called "blue collar" employees, excluding craft, among others, the U-W-M Maintenance Local No. 1 Independent Union did not indicate to the Commission any desire to be placed on any ballot should the unit it desired be found to be inappropriate. After the issuance of the direction, and on December 18, 1967, counsel for said Labor Organization filed a motion with the Commission requesting to be placed on the ballot in the election involving said "blue collar" employees. The Commission is satisfied that said Labor Organization has sufficient interest among the employees in said "blue collar" unit to be placed on the ballot and has, therefore, today issued an amended direction of election in the matter.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 20th day of December, 1967.
