MEMORANDUM ACCOMPANYING DIRECTION OF ELECTION

The collective bargaining unit described in the attached Direction was proposed by the Petitioner. The Municipal Employer neither approved nor disapproved thereof and proposed no other unit.

The Municipal Employer reserved the right to challenge the ballots of employees in the Machinist-Repairman and Maintenance Worker III classifications on the ground that they are craft employees and to challenge the ballots of employees in the Clerk-Stenographer IV, Clerk IV and Student Service Coordinator I classifications on the ground that they are supervisory employees.

The parties stipulated that employees Margaret Chelhar, Elizabeth Thier and Marion Weyer, who are in the Administrative Assistant and Secretary classification; employees Bonnie Boase, Karyn Zehren, who are in the Clerk-Stenographer III classification and employee Judith Lukas, who is in the Clerk-Stenographer I classification, are ineligible to vote because they are either supervisory or confidential employees.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 25th day of October, 1968.
