AFL-CIO,

Complainant,

vs. _____

APPLETON ELECTRIC COMPANY,

Respondent.

Case I
No. 13773 Ce-1300
Decision No. 9651-B

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Complaint of unfair labor practices having been filed with the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission in the above-entitled matter, and the Commission having appointed Robert B. Moberly, a member of the Commission's staff, to act as Examiner, and to make and issue Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order as provided in Section 111.07 (5) of the Wisconsin Employment Peace Act; and hearing on said complaint having been held at Milwaukee, Wisconsin on July 8, 1970, before the Examiner; and the Examiner, on November 9, 1970, having issued Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order; and in said decision the Examiner having concluded that Arbitrator Philip G. Marshall had jurisdiction to issue a supplemental arbitration award, that Respondent Appleton Electric Company accepted and recognized the supplemental arbitration award, that Respondent was not refusing to accept and recognize as conclusive the final determination of a tribunal having competent jurisdiction, and that therefore Respondent did not commit and was not committing any unfair labor practice within the meaning of the Wisconsin Employment Peace Act; and the Examiner having further ordered that, because of the joint request of the parties, the case would be held in abeyance to permit the Employer and the Complainant an opportunity to examine necessary records to determine whether the Respondent has complied in full with the supplemental arbitration award; and Counsel for Complainant, on February 24, 1971, having advised the Examiner that the Company has complied with the

No. 9651-B

NOW, THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That the complaint in the above-entitled matter be, and the same hereby is, dismissed.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this 25th day of February, 1971.
