Milton L. Meister

Circuit Judge

HARTFORD UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT and the BOARD OF EDUCATION OF HARTFORD UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT,

Petitioners,

v.

WISCONSIN EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION,

Respondent.

STIPULATION

Circuit Court
Case No. 13261
Decision No. 11002-C

Whereas the petitioners above-named did, on October 11, 1974, file with this court a petition for judicial review of the order of the respondent Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission dated September 12, 1974, being the commission's decision number 11002-B, and the respondent then counter-petitioned for enforcement of said order, and

Whereas the said commission's order directed petitioners, inter alia, to take certain affirmative action relative to the execution of a collective bargaining agreement with the Hartford Education Association, and

Whereas the petitioners effectively have discharged its responsibilities under said commission order by executing a collective bargaining agreement with said Association for a subsequent year, and

Whereas, the interests of no party requires further judicial proceedings relative to the said commission order,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS STIPULATED by the parties, through their undersigned counsel, that the court may dismiss the petitioners' petition for judicial review and the commission's counter-petition for enforcement, and that said dismissal may be without notice and without costs.
