ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Judith A. Patenaude having, on January 18, 1994, filed a petition with the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission requesting the Commission to determine whether the classification of Graphic Artist/Designer should be excluded from the existing technical employees collective bargaining unit represented by Wisconsin State Employees Union, Council 24, AFSCME, AFL-CIO on the basis that the incumbent employees constitute professional employees pursuant to Section 111.81(11), Stats.; that, in a written statement received by the Commission on February 3, 1994, Wisconsin State Employees Union, Council 24, AFSCME, AFL-CIO requested that the petition be dismissed since it was filed by an individual, rather than by the employer or a certified bargaining agent; that, in a written statement received by the Commission on February 8, 1994, the State objected to the petition on the same basis as Wisconsin State Employees Union, Council 24, AFSCME, AFL-CIO; that, in State of Wisconsin, Dec. No. 13824 (WERC, 7/75), the Commission stated as follows:

"The Commission will not process a petition filed by individual employees contesting their placement in a particular statutorily created bargaining unit. Such a petition must be filed by either a labor organization or the State Employer;"

that, since the petition was not filed by either the State Employer or a labor organization which is the certified representative of a bargaining unit of employes of the State, the Commission is satisfied that the petition should be dismissed;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED 1/

That the petition filed in the instant matter be, and the same hereby is, dismissed.

Given under our hands and seal at the City of Madison, Wisconsin this 1st day of March, 1994.

No agency is required to conduct more than one rehearing based on a petition for rehearing filed under this subsection in any contested case.

1/ 227.53 Parties and proceedings for review. (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, any person aggrieved by a decision specified in s. 227.52 shall be entitled to judicial review thereof as provided in this chapter.

(a) Proceedings for review shall be instituted by serving a petition therefore personally or by certified mail upon the agency or one of its officials, and filing the petition in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county where the judicial review proceedings are to be held. Unless a rehearing is requested under s. 227.49, petitions for review under this paragraph shall be served and filed within 30 days after the service of the decision of the agency upon all parties under s. 227.48. If a rehearing is requested under s. 227.49, any party desiring judicial review shall serve and file a petition for review within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of the application for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any such application for rehearing. The 30-day period for serving and filing a petition under this paragraph commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the decision by the agency. If the petitioner is a resident, the proceedings shall be held in the circuit court for the county where the petitioner resides, except that if the petitioner is an agency, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court for the county where the respondent resides and except as provided in ss. 77.59(6)(b), 182.70(6) and 182.71(5)(g). The proceedings shall be in the circuit court for Dane county if the petitioner is a nonresident. If all parties stipulate and the court to which the parties desire to transfer the proceedings agrees, the proceedings may be held in the county designated by the parties. If 2 or more petitions for review of the same decision are filed in different counties, the circuit judge for the county in which a petition for review of the decision was first filed shall determine the venue for judicial review of the decision, and shall order transfer or consolidation where appropriate.

(b) The petition shall state the nature of the petitioner's interest, the facts showing that petitioner is a person aggrieved by the decision, and the grounds specified in s. 227.57 upon which petitioner contends that the decision should be reversed or modified.

(c) Copies of the petition shall be served, personally or by certified mail, or, when service is timely admitted in writing, by first class mail, not later than 30 days after the institution of the proceeding, upon all parties who appeared before the agency in the proceeding in which the order sought to be reviewed was made.
