No. 11674-B

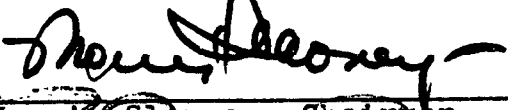

MEMORANDUM ACCOMPANYING ORDER AFFIRMING
EXAMINER'S FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

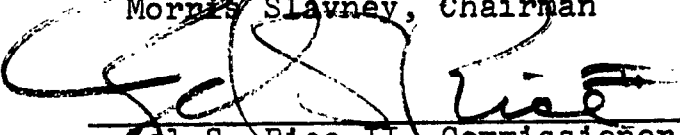

In his Memorandum the Examiner discusses the remedy requested by the Complainants, which included reimbursement for legal expenses. The complaint has been dismissed on the basis that the Respondents did not commit any of the alleged prohibited practices. The Examiner's remarks as to the individual Complainant's claim for legal fees, which claim was submitted to the City Council, has no materiality to the disposition of the issues in the instant proceeding. Therefore, we do not adopt the discussion of the Examiner in that regard, and we have ordered that it be stricken from the Memorandum.

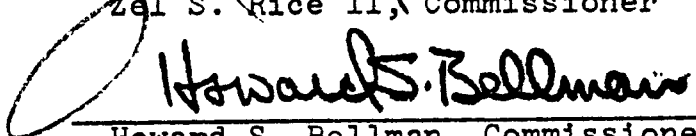

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 4th day of September, 1974.
