MEMORANDUM ACCOMPANYING ORDER APPOINTING EXAMINER

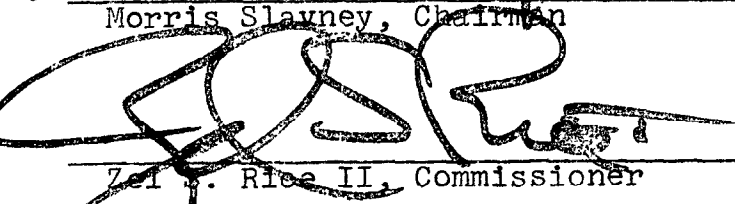

In its complaint filed herein the Complainant requested the full Commission to conduct hearing on the complaint and to also at the same time conduct hearing on the Complainant's motion for enforcement of an Examiner's decision 1/ rendered against the same Respondent on January 9, 1974. The Commission today has issued an Order denying the motion of the Complainant with respect to enforcement of the Examiner's decision at this time.

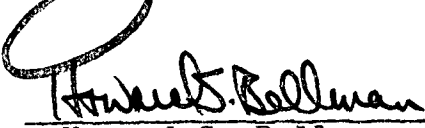

Further, in the complaint filed herein the Complainant requests the Commission to issue an interlocutory order restraining and enjoining the Respondent from continuing to engage in the alleged prohibited practices. By its appointment of an Examiner to conduct the hearing on the complaint filed herein, it is deemed that the request of the Complainant that the full Commission conduct the hearing is hereby denied and further that the request of the Complainant that the Commission issue an interlocutory order is also denied.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 6th day of March, 1974.
