

STATE OF WISCONSIN

BEFORE THE WISCONSIN EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION

RUTH M. FERG and STATE OF WISCONSIN,

Complainants,

vs.

AFSCME (COUNCIL 24, LOCAL 55), AFL-CIO,

Respondent.

Case II

No. 24114 PP(S)-56

Decision No. 16837-A

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO INTERVENE

Ruth M. Ferg having, on February 6, 1979, filed a complaint with the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission alleging that AFSCME (Council 24, Local 55), AFL-CIO had committed certain unfair labor practices within the meaning of the State Employment Labor Relations Act; and the Commission having appointed Peter G. Davis, a member of its staff, as Examiner in said matter; and a hearing having been scheduled for March 6, 1979; and the State of Wisconsin, Department of Employment Relations, having on February 23, 1979 filed a Motion to Intervene as a party-complainant; and the Examiner having considered said Motion and the positions of Ferg and AFSCME (Council 24, Local 55), AFL-CIO with respect thereto which were telephonically communicated to the Examiner on February 28, 1979;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is

ORDERED

That State of Wisconsin, Department of Employment Relation's Motion to Intervene as a party-complainant in the above-entitled matter is hereby granted.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin this 28th day of February, 1979.

WISCONSIN EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION

By

Peter G. Davis, Examiner

MEMORANDUM ACCOMPANYING ORDER
GRANTING MOTION TO INTERVENE

Section 111.84(4) of the State Employment Labor Relations Act states that "any controversy concerning unfair labor practices may be submitted to the Commission as provided in S. 111.07....". Sec. 111.07(2), Wis. Stats., states in relevant part "Any other person claiming interest in the dispute or controversy as an employer, an employee, or their representative, shall be made a party upon application." In light of said statute and complainant Ferg's lack of objection to State of Wisconsin's intervention as a party-complainant, the Examiner, after having considered AFSCME (Council 24, Local 55), AFL-CIO's opposition thereto, has granted said motion.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin this 28th day of February, 1979.

WISCONSIN EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION

By

Peter G. Davis, Examiner