NOTICE OF COMMISSION'S FINDINGS OF FACT,
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER
PURSUANT TO SECTION 111.07(5), STATS.

Examiner Sherwood Malamud having on January 13, 1983 issued his Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order, with Accompanying Memorandum; in the above-entitled matter wherein the above-named Respondent was found to have committed certain prohibited practices and was ordered to take certain remedial action and wherein the Examiner also dismissed certain allegations of prohibited practices; and both parties having timely filed petitions for review of the Examiner's Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order; and prior to further action, the parties having notified the Commission that they had resolved their dispute and were withdrawing their respective appeals; and the Commission therefore being satisfied that there is no basis for further Commission action;

NOW THEREFORE, the Commission issues the following

NOTICE

That, by operation of Section 111.07(5), Stats., Examiner Malamud's Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order issued in the above-entitled matter becomes the Commission's Finding of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order. 1/

Given under our hands and seal at the City of Madison, Wisconsin this 14th day of October, 1983.

WISCONSIN EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION

judicial review naming the Commission as Respondent, may be filed by following the procedures set forth in Sec. 227.16(1)(a), Stats.

227.12 Petitions for rehearing in contested cases. (1) A petition for rehearing shall not be prerequisite for appeal or review. Any person aggrieved by a final order may, within 20 days after service of the order, file a written petition for rehearing which shall specify in detail the grounds for the relief sought and supporting authorities. An agency may order a rehearing on its own motion within 20 days after service of a final order. This subsection does not apply to s. 17.025 (3)(e). No agency is required to conduct more than one rehearing based on a petition for rehearing filed under this subsection in any contested case.

227.16 Parties and proceedings for review. (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, any person aggrieved by a decision specified in s. 227.15 shall be entitled to judicial review thereof as provided in this chapter.

(a) Proceedings for review shall be instituted by serving a petition therefor personally or by certified mail upon the agency or one of its officials, and filing the petition in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county where the judicial review proceedings are to be held. Unless a rehearing is requested under s. 227.12, petitions for review under this paragraph shall be served and filed within 30 days after the service of the decision of the agency upon all parties under s. 227.11. If a rehearing is requested under s. 227.12, any party desiring judicial review shall serve and file a petition for review within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of the application for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any such application for rehearing. The 30-day period for serving and filing a petition under this paragraph commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the decision by the agency. If the petitioner is a resident, the proceedings shall be held in the circuit court for the county where the petitioner resides, except that if the petitioner is an agency, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court for the county where the respondent resides and except as provided in ss. 182.70(6) and 182.71(5)(g). The proceedings shall be in the circuit court for Dane county if the petitioner is a nonresident. If all parties stipulate and the court to which the parties desire to transfer the proceedings agrees, the proceedings may be held in the county designated by the parties. If 2 or more petitions for review of the same decision are filed in different counties, the circuit judge for the county in which a petition for review of the decision was first filed shall determine the venue for judicial review of the decision, and shall order transfer or consolidation where appropriate.

Note: For purposes of the above-noted statutory time-limits, the date of Commission service of this decision is the date it is placed in the mail (in this case the date appearing immediately above the signatures); the date of filing of a rehearing petition is the date of actual receipt by the Commission; and the service date of a judicial review petition is the date of actual receipt by the Court and placement in the mail to the Commission.
